26 On June 10, 2005, the Court set trial in the above-captioned matters to begin on 27 Monday, August 22, 2005, at 9:00 a.m. Shortly thereafter, counsel for the United States
28 became aware of a scheduling conflict with that date. Counsel for the United States

1 therefore respectfully requests that the beginning date for the trial be moved one day, to 2 Tuesday, August 23, 2005, to ensure continuity of counsel. The United States has 3 consulted with counsel for both defendants, and both of them consent to and join this 4 request. The parties all anticipate that, even with this modification in the trial date, the 5 trial will still be completed before the end of the week. The parties do not request any 6 changes in the pre-trial motions and conference schedule already set.

7 Because the requested modification of the trial date is to provide for continuity of 8 counsel, the parties jointly submit that the one-day period between August 22, 2005, and 9 August 23, 2005, should be excluded from the calculation of time under the Speedy Trial 10 Act. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv). The ends of justice served by excluding that 11 time period outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial, 12 in accordance with Title 18, Section 3161(h)(8)(A).

1 For the reasons set forth above, the Court finds that the trial date for the above-
2 captioned matters should be moved from August 22, 2005, to August 23, 2005. Also for 3 the reasons set forth above, the Court finds and holds that the ends of justice served by 4 excluding the intervening time outweigh the best interests of the public and the Defendant
5 in the rights set forth under the Speedy Trial Act. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(A). IT IS 6 THEREFORE ORDERED that the trial date shall be moved to August 23, 2005, at 9:00
7 a.m., and that the time from August 22, 2005, to August 23, 2005, shall be excluded for 8 the purposes of computing time within the Speedy Trial Act.

9
